THE DAILY JOURNAL

Is the best daily paper published on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, east of Sacramento, and having a general circulation throughout the State it is especially valuable as an advertising medium.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL have a combined circulation larger than that of any interior journal of Nevada, excepting those on the Comstock.

SHERMAN'S GRIEF AT McPHERSON'S DEATH.

Sherman was very fond of McPherson. They were in close intellectual and social friendship. I went out to McPherson's headquarters about two o'clock on the morning before he was killed. I woke him up and we took a drink and had breakfast together, and then started to get information as to the enemy in front that Sherman wanted. I went back to Sherman's house; it was what was called the Howard House, now the Hurt House. McPherson came there, and was there when the attack was opened on his command by Hood, and he galloped off from that house. News came after some time, that Hood was repulsed, but McPherson was killed. Sherman said to me: "Warner, you have been all over that ground to day. I went you to go back and find how things are from personal inspection, and come to me." On my way I met McPherson's dead body; he was shot in the side, the ball going upward. When I got back the body was lying on the porch, and Sherman was going up and down with slippers on his feet, and bare headed, crying. Every time he passed the body he would look down, and his eyes filled up again. At that time officers and orderlies were riding up for orders, and he would answer them, and then continue his rapid walk, and look down at the body. It was a very affecting scene. That night I was riding from the front with Sherman, and we had several miles to go over. All the way back he talked incessantly of McPherson, and he told me this: "Warner," he said, "I thought McPherson would be the man to close out this war. Grant and I are pretty sure to be knocked over before it is done, either by the enemy or public opinion; we will both make some mistake, or be accused of some mistake, which will set us aside; and I had looked on McPherson as the man to conduct our armies to the end of the war. He is a great, great loss." — Willard Warner.

The uncertainty of lotteries is conspicuously exemplified by the fact that while Andriot, the winner of the grand prize—125,000 francs—in the French National Lottery, bought only eight tickets, a Parisian feminine cook bought not less than 14,000 tickets, and yet drew nothing except a few small shares (petits lots) not worth speaking of. She had been for years in so good a place that she had been able to save 15,000 francs, and her infatuation with the lottery had become such that she embarked in series after series, purchasing literally piles of tickets, until her last sou had been spent. She felt so sure of winning something handsome that her disappointment nearly upset her reason, and she is to day one of the most wretched citizens of Paris. A cloth manufacturer of the capital had presented to the committee a piece of his own cloth, which was offered as a prize. There were 11,999 to 1 against his drawing it; and yet he drew it, and nothing else. Andriot seems to be as thrifty and sensible as most Frenchmen about money. He had received the full amount of his prize, and deposited 118,000 francs in the Bank of France, retaining the remainder for his present uses. If an American had been so lucky, he would have been likely to spend it all in extravagant living, or to put it into the next lottery. Andriot came within an ace of losing the prize. He purchased his eight tickets of a tobacconist in the Quarter Moussetard immediately after a neighbor had purchased a like number. But one ticket remained in the fourth series, and this, which drew the prize, fell with seven others to Andriot.

Beg to inform the Smoking Public that they are the only manufacturers of Cigars who use at present only 1876 Havana Fillers and 1876 Pennsylvania Wrappers, the latter is grown from Havana seed. Both of above mentioned crops are much superior to anything grown since then and Messrs. L. B. & Co. had the forethought and capital to lay in a sufficient supply to last them until the '77 crop will be sufficiently cured to be worked to advantage, as the latter crop is not entirely suited to be worked for at least 8 months to come as it tastes bitter, costs some what and has a copper color. ### Local Brevities.

The Truckee is booming.
The Jess Bros. will locate in Modoc County, Cal.

An assessment of $150 per share has been levied on Union.

Mrs. Perry, we are glad to learn, is not sick with the scarlet fever.

Supt. Yerington, of the V. & T. R. R., came down on a special yesterday to look after Co. affairs at this station.

The Wrong Moon-Eye.

The Chinaman, Tong Sing, who was captured on Monday night's train on suspicion of being one of the fellows who murdered another Mongolian in Austin, was liberated yesterday, a telegram having been received that he was not the one wanted, and now Tong Sing breathes the breath of Heaven and an opium den.

More Rain.

We were favored with another shower of rain yesterday afternoon. It poured down very lively for a couple of hours, and the clerk of the weather is notified we can get along first-rate for the next three weeks.

THE GAZETTE of last evening says "A. A. Longley has engaged John Courtney to build a stone enclosure around the grave of Mrs. Longley in the Masonic cemetery." That news is three weeks old, neighbor.

Fruit trees are in bloom all around town, bushes are bedecking them sleeves in green and soon Jack Frost will come, and then where will the aforesaid be?

Mrs. BOWERS, the Washoe seeress, has returned to the Comstock. Al Peck, the divining rod man, is to hear from.

B. B. BAUM is putting up a large frame building on the lot adjoining the Pollard House, to be used as a restaurant and lodging house.

SENATOR JONES will leave Washington this week for a brief business trip to Leadville, Colorado.

The whole force of the C. P. and not U. P. carpenters will be put to work on the new Depot Hotel.

EDWARD MCFADDEN, of Aurora, has been appointed Deputy Secretary of State.

W. GOEGOLE has purchased a large stock of jewelry and will open a store here on his own hook.

M. NATHAN will be ready to receive customers to-day.

The State Fair.

This is a State matter, but the people of Reno are particularly interested in its welfare and prosperity, for here are located the Pavilion and Fair Grounds, and here are attracted the large crowds of visitors who spend their money freely, aiding every business man and causing many to become acquainted with the beauties and prospects of our town, now under a cloud, but soon to stand out in more than its usual life and vigor. These being the facts, and none can deny them, it behoves all to help the Society along. Become a life member, encourage the officers by showing that you have an interest in it, talk it up, and in every possible way help the Society along. It should be a matter of pride to all, particularly Renoites, to make the Nevada State Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Society a successful, prosperous one.

Happy Farmers.

The heavy rains of the last few days have been worth a great deal to the farmers, not only of this State but in California. The news received from all points is of the most cheerful character. Farmers anticipate heavy crops the coming season and are busy getting a good ready on so that they will reap an abundant harvest. In this vicinity is situated the best farming tract of land in Nevada and upon this industry Washoe county's prosperity depends in a large degree, so we can rejoice with the farmers and share their prosperity with them next Fall.

The C. P. Ferry Boat.

The passenger trains will not change their time until that big boat is finished which will be some time yet. It is to be 400 feet long, will have four tracks upon it and carry four trains at a time. It will be the second largest boat afloat—the Great Eastern along being larger. The latter is regarded as too large for regular work and is used almost exclusively for the purpose of laying cables, but the C. P. boat will find all it can do to carry the trains across to the City. The work of building it is being hurried forward.

In Town.

Mr. J. L. Lewison, now of Truckee, but soon to be a Renoite, was in town yesterday. Mr. Lewison is the lessee of one of Marshall's stores, and will open in a couple of weeks with a fine stock of dry goods, etc. He intends to make Reno his future home, and we are very glad of it. He is a live and energetic business man in every sense of the word.

Probabilities of a Booming Market.
The Eureka Sentinel figures it out this way:

We regard the chances as good, better than for years past, for a lively stock market in the near future. The situation, however, is not without contingencies. One of the first is the defeat of California's new constitution. Next, the flooded mines must be drained through the Sutro tunnel. Then the crosscutting and uncovering of the new bonanzas in the north end will do the rest. All of these things, we believe, will terminate favorably for a market. The constitutional election in California occurs on May 7th. Sutro is under contract to receive the water from the flooded mines in ninety days, and says he will be ready for it in sixty. The Sierra Nevada incline will have reached the 2400 level and be in readiness for crosscutting; before that there must be a reaction and marked advance all along the line, and especially at the north end, within the next sixty or ninety days. Stocks may fluctuate, and even go lower in the meantime, but that there will be a lively shaking up before midsummer, hardly admits of a doubt.

The CHINESE IN HAVANA.—Havana has a very large Chinese population. Coolies were imported until within a few years in great numbers, and sold under a contract of eight years of service. When this period expired the Coolies naturally gravitated toward the cities, and a nucleus once formed soon spread, until whole sections are now peopled almost exclusively with these Mongolians. A few of them have accumulated some wealth, nearly all of them are industrious, but with the great mass it is a serious question as to the provision for even the meagre food which satisfies their idea of living. Their young men are fond of imitating the ways, dress, and diversions of the Cuban "blood." There is something exceedingly funny, not to say grotesquely pathetic, in the sight of a Chinaman peering out from the highest of "Piccadillys," and adorned with a stylish silk hat, a cane and lavender kids. These young fellows acquire all the vices if not all the virtues of this cosmopolitan City.—Harper's.

WHAT does "Phthologynrh" spell? Answer—Phth (as in phthisic) is T; ole (as in colone) is UR; gn (as in gnus) is N; yrth (as in myrrh) is ER or "Turner." What a language!

CREAM OF THE TELEGRAPH.

The Standard has declared a dividend of 50 cents per share.

Thousands of the negroes who are leaving the South, will be employed on the Pacific railroads.

Troy Dye is a maniac. It has been necessary to tie him with straps and he is constantly watched.

Ex Senator Sargent has definitely determined to forego his ocean cruise and proceed to California at an early date. He is now in New York.

The total vote of Rhode Island is: Republican 9,718; Democrat, 5,575; Greenback and scattering, 377.

The British, under Captain Gongh, defeated 5,000 Afghans, killing 400. The British loss was three officers and three men killed and thirty-one wounded.

A contractor has undertaken to repair and raise the dams around Szegedin within thirty-eight days. The rebuilding of the town will commence in June.

The Kansas Central Railroad (narrow gauge), running west from Leavenworth 85 miles, will be sold on the 14th of April under a mortgagor foreclosure.

The Skaget river gold mines are creating an excitement. Gold worth $17 an ounce has been found. The placers extend fifty miles. A large party left Seattle on Monday for the headwaters of the river. The gold is coarse and heavy;

The Cabinet and the Republicans in Congress are now united in support of the President in his position in regard to the revolutionary legislation proposed by the Democrats. The certainty of a veto makes it impossible now for the legislation to succeed.

An attempt was made to rescue Dever, who killed a fellow convict in San Quentin, for which he has been sentenced to hang, yesterday. The plot failed by a falling bar alarming the guards. The other convicts threaten to burn the prison if he hangs.

Keene now has about 6,500,000 bushels of wheat in America, and by shrewd combination has control of a considerable amount in Europe. There seems to be considerable ground for the belief that there is a combination to raise the prices of grain and provisions all over the country.

The citizens of Davis City, Decatur county, Iowa, on Monday banded together, seized the two desperadoes Tucker and Tarter, and hung Tucker and would have hung Tarter but that he was taken from the mob and jailed. Martha McLain's bagino was then entered and the contents destroyed. The mob committed other depredations. Much excitement prevails and more trouble is anticipated.

Some Chicago capitalists in the Board of Trade have purchased the once famous Vulture mine of Arizona Territory, formerly owned by Phelps & Co. of California. Mills and other works are to be erected at once. An incorporation with $10,000,000 capital stock has been made under the name of the Central Arizona Mining Company. The stock will be listed and sold on the New York Stock Exchange.

Very little doubt exists among those who know the inner workings of the Porter case that should the President, Secretary of War and the Judge-Advocate General unite in recommending legislation Congress would pass an act reinstating him. His friends disclaim in his name any intention of asking for back pay; but reinstatement would give him the right to ask for it for sixteen years, ending January 21st, 1879. The arrearages of pay amount to over $130,000.

Advertising Medium.

The advertising columns of the JOURNAL afford an excellent opportunity to our readers to study out where purchases of all kinds can be made on the most advantageous terms. All classes of goods can there be found advertised from a suit of clothes or nice silk dress to the daintiest ornament in the jewelry line. The JOURNAL reaches nearly every family as well as business house in the county, and, therefore, advertisers seek its columns that the public may know what they have for sale.

MRS. PARTINGTON, in illustration of the proverb "A soft answer turneth away wrath," says that "it is better to speak pugnaciously of a person than to be all the time flinging epithets."

OSBURN & SHOEMAKER have received and offer for sale at their old stand all kinds of paints oils and window glass.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

We publish the following, relative to the founder of this wide-spread and popular benevolent order, who was a patriarch at thirty-nine, from the New York World, as of personal interest to our local Knights:

The visit to New York of Justus H. Rathbone, the founder of the order of the Knights of Pythias, and Senior Past Supreme Chancellor of the order, has awakened a great deal of interest among the officers and members in this section. Mr. Rathbone has not yet reached the prime of life, being but 39. He was born in Deerfoot, New York, is tall; but not too strong, and is likely to live to a good old age. He tells many stories of his tour in the West, where the lodges he visited looked for a patriarch, and hardly believed that the young man before them was the originator of their order. Concerning the founding of the order, Mr. Rathbone says that when he was 18 he was teaching school in Michigan. The boys were anxious to get up a sort of dramatic entertainment, but lacked ladies to do the female parts. To overcome this they wrote to a dramatic agency in New York to send them plays with as few female characters as possible. One of them happened to be "Damion and Pythias," and while reading it over young Rathbone thought he saw a good chance for a secret brotherly organization. He immediately wrote out the ritual, which he carried in his pocket for some years. During 1834 he was stationed in Washington as a military attache to the War Department. He gathered a few clerks of the different departments together on the evening of February 15th, and after duly binding them to secrecy, read the ritual of the Knights of Pythias, which pleased them so much that they immediately began to form a lodge. Then came jealousies and contentions, which threatened at times to sap the growth of the body.

Mr. Rathbone fought against odds and finally succeeded in overcoming his opponents. Now the order numbers 110,000 members, and has thirty-four Grand Lodges, besides a Supreme Lodge. The initials of the order are F. C. B., meaning "Friendship, Charity and Benevolence." As a token of the esteem and respect in which Mr. Rathbone is held, the Supreme Lodge of the world presented him with a gold badge, which he carries with him. It has the shape of triangles centering on a hemisphere from which projects the heads of five spears, joined by a wreath of myrtle. On the uppermost triangle is the word "Friendship," and the date on which the first lodge was organized, February 19, 1864. On the right hand triangle is "Charity," and the date of the organization of the supreme body, and on the left triangle is "Benevolence," and the date of the appointment of the committee to design and procure the badge. On the border of the hemisphere is the inscription, "To Justus H. Rathbone, Founder of the Order." The badge is surmounted by a knight's visor, to which is attached a blue ribbon. Across the center of the ribbon is a gold bar, on which are inscribed the words, "Fons et origo."

A Disease that Wrecks the System.
Every function is deranged, every nerve unstrung, every muscle and fiber weakened by fever and ague. It is, in fact, a disease which if unchecked, eventually wrecks the system. In all its types, in every phase, it is dangerous, destructive. Stupor, delirium, convulsions, often attend it, and cause swift dissolution. But when combated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, its foothold in the system is dislodged, and every vestige of it eradicated. That benign anti-trope specific and preventive of the dreaded scourge is recognized not only within our own boundaries, but in tropic lands far beyond them, where intermittents are fearfully prevalent, to be a sure antidote for the malarial poison and a reliable means of overcoming disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, of which a vitiated torpid atmosphere and brackish misnamed water are extremely provocative. All emigrants and travelers should be supplied with it.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—The following facts are of great importance to the community, and they should be carefully read and acted upon by everybody in the county:

Fact 1. That L. Abrams, to accommodate the public, has "resumed" in the building opposite the Granger store. Fact 2. That he sells better clothing for less money than anybody. Fact 3. That he gives satisfaction in quality and fit.

For confirmation of the above facts ask any well dressed man in Reno.*

YANKEE DODGE'S notion store Virginia street, next door to Cunningham & Gibson, where can be found all those little articles so indispensable to every well regulated household. It would be useless to try to enumerate for there is no limit to the assortment. We intend to keep everything that there is a demand for. Trusting our old customers will call again, bring their friends, and for our part we promise to supply their wants at the lowest possible rates.
